106TH CONGRESS 2D SESSION

H. R. 4319

To continue the current prohibition of military relations with and assistance for the armed forces of the Republic of Indonesia until the President determines and certifies to the Congress that certain conditions with respect to East Timor are being met.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 13, 2000

Mr. McGovern (for himself, Mr. Smith of New Jersey, Mr. Weygand, and Mr. Kennedy of Rhode Island) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations, and in addition to the Committee on Armed Services, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To continue the current prohibition of military relations with and assistance for the armed forces of the Republic of Indonesia until the President determines and certifies to the Congress that certain conditions with respect to East Timor are being met.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
- 4 This Act may be cited as the "East Timor Repatri-
- 5 ation and Security Act of 2000".

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

- 2 The Congress finds the following:
- 3 (1) An estimated 100,000 East Timorese refu-
- 4 gees remain in West Timor, where they fled or were
- 5 forcibly driven by militia and members of the armed
- 6 forces of the Republic of Indonesia following the
- 7 United Nations sponsored popular consultation of
- 8 August 30, 1999, in which 78.5 percent of East
- 9 Timor's population voted for independence from In-
- donesia.
- 11 (2) Many of the East Timorese refugees in
- West Timor would like to return to East Timor but
- have been prevented from doing so by militia forces
- operating with the cooperation of Indonesian army
- elements.
- 16 (3) Hundreds of the refugees in West Timor
- have died from preventable illnesses while many
- thousands continue to live in a state of danger, un-
- 19 certainty and severe threats, including that of forced
- resettlement to other areas of Indonesia.
- 21 (4) Elements of the Indonesian army have at-
- tempted to infiltrate armed militia members into
- East Timor, and reportedly have planned a militia
- 24 invasion of East Timor.

- 1 (5) Border attacks by militia groups remain a 2 threat to peace and stability in the region and to 3 international peacekeeping forces.
 - (6) Much of East Timor's infrastructure was destroyed in the violence of 1999 and remains to be rebuilt.
 - (7) An estimated 100,000 to 200,000 of East Timor's original population of less than 700,000 perished from the combined effects of Indonesia's occupation of East Timor before the violence of 1999.
 - (8) Thousands of East Timorese were killed in violence perpetrated by Indonesian army elements and militia in 1999.
 - (9) The prospects for justice for the victims of the violence of 1999 remain unclear.
 - (10) An estimated 80 percent of East Timor's population remains unemployed and East Timor's Nobel Prize winning Catholic Bishop, Carlos Ximenes Belo, has made a plea on their behalf.
 - (11) United States funds have been committed to efforts by the United Nations and the efforts of others to rebuild East Timor.
- (12) Communications and logistical units of the United States Armed Forces have formed part of

- the international peacekeeping forces that entered East Timor in 1999.
- 3 (13) The reform government of Indonesia, led by President Abdurrahman Wahid and Vice Presi-5 dent Megawati Sukarnoputri, has made good faith 6 commitments to end Indonesian military support for militias and to establish a fair and transparent 7 8 mechanism to bring to justice the perpetrators of 9 gross human rights violations in East Timor and 10 elsewhere, but the efforts of the elected leadership of 11 Indonesia have thus far been resisted, and in some 12 cases actively disobeyed, by elements in the military 13 and in the bureaucracy.

14 SEC. 3. SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.

- 15 It is the sense of the Congress that the United States 16 Government should utilize all diplomatic and economic 17 means to press for—
 - (1) the safe repatriation to East Timor of all East Timorese in West Timor and elsewhere who wish to return to East Timor;
- 21 (2) an end to border incidents and infiltration 22 of militias and an end to any other violent actions 23 by militias and the armed forces of the Republic of 24 Indonesia against the people or territory of East 25 Timor;

18

1	(3) processes leading to justice for the victims
2	of the 1999 violence in East Timor;
3	(4) rapid reconstruction of East Timor, making
4	maximum use of local personnel; and
5	(5) a significant increase in employment for
6	East Timorese in all internationally-sponsored recon-
7	struction and United Nations efforts relating to
8	East Timor.
9	SEC. 4. PROHIBITION ON MILITARY RELATIONS AND AS-
10	SISTANCE TO THE ARMED FORCES OF INDO-
11	NESIA.
12	Notwithstanding any other provision of law, United
13	States military relations with, and military assistance for,
14	the armed forces of the Republic of Indonesia suspended
15	by the President pursuant to the directive of the President
16	issued on September 9, 1999, may not be resumed until
17	the President determines and certifies to the Congress
18	that the Government of Indonesia provides for the terri-
19	torial integrity of East Timor, the security of refugees and
20	the safety of the East Timor population, and has brought
21	to justice those individuals who have committed murder,
22	rape, torture, and other crimes against humanity in East
23	Timor and elsewhere.

1	SEC. 5. RECOGNITION OF UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES
2	ASSISTING THE INTERNATIONAL PEACE-
3	KEEPING OPERATION IN EAST TIMOR.
4	The Congress recognizes and salutes those members
5	of the United States Armed Forces who have assisted the
6	international peacekeeping operation in East Timor.
